

Focus on your arguments. Leave the trial technology to us.

DecisionQuest® (a U.S. Legal Support company) offers one of the most experienced trial presentation teams in the nation for all your trial technology and logistics needs. With over 7,500 days in the “hot seat” for trials, arbitrations, and mediations alike, DecisionQuest® Trial Presentation Specialists have deep experience supporting high-stakes state and federal trials in a variety of venues nationwide.

About the DecisionQuest® Trial Presentation Specialists:

From pre-trial preparation to on-site technical setup, to being your in-courtroom technician, our Trial Presentation Specialists are well versed in state-of-the-art technology and conditioned to the nuances of courtroom protocol and procedure.

- Engagements ranging from one day to several months-long trials to single day proceedings
- Seamlessly integrate with trial team
- Experience in courthouse logistics and judicial preferences around the country

Ask Us About

- Our in-person and remote capabilities (we were one of the first to offer remote assistance and now we lead the industry!)
- Our experience with all types of evidence, not just paper and video: PowerPoints, spreadsheets, scheduling software and more!
- Our team's 500+ years of collective experience with nearly every case and venue in the country

How We Can Help

Pre-Trial

- Provide equipment recommendations
- Create trial presentation database
- Scan/load documents and graphics
- Synchronize deposition transcript to video
- Create clip designations and edit deposition video and/or audio clips based on trial team directives

War Room/In Court

- Appear in court with equipment and perform setup
- Update and manage trial presentation database
- Run through presentations with trial team
- Provide on-demand access to documents, transcripts, videos, photos, graphics, and animations
- Prepare/perform seamless, on-the-fly document highlights, annotations and side-by-side comparisons

About DecisionQuest®

As the strategic trial consulting leader in the industry, DecisionQuest® (a U.S. Legal Support company) provides a full suite of jury research and consulting, mock trials, trial graphics and trial technology services to law firms nationwide. Since its inception in 1990, DecisionQuest® has consulted on more than 20,000 high-risk trials, arbitrations, and mediations in a variety of venues nationwide. By applying scientific research and methodology with the art of persuasion, we help clients make informed, strategic decisions and realize their best-case scenario. For more information about DecisionQuest®, visit www.decisionquest.com.